

WLMT's Summer Theatre Programs are back!

We are currently looking for a qualified, energetic individual to fill the following positions:

Teen Intensive Course Director (1 week)

The WLMT "Teen Theatre Showcase" is a one-week musical theatre intensive course for high school students. The director of this course will plan and facilitate a series of meaningful, dynamic, theatre-based workshops which will challenge and engage participants through "masterclass" sessions in areas such as performance, specialized choreography, and vocal training. They will also work as the director the end-of-program cabaret performance.

Availability

The Teen Theatre Showcase Director must be available between 8:30 am and 5:00 pm from July 28 to August 1, and will be required to attend additional training and planning sessions as needed.

Requirements

Qualified must have relevant theatre experience as well as a wide range of experiences working with youth in an artistic environment. Post-secondary training in dramatic arts, education, or a related field, is an asset. The successful applicant must be self-directed, creative, motivated, and have excellent rapport with teens and their parents. They must be familiar with workshop facilitation and reflective practice. In addition, they must be at least 18 years old and hold a police clearance.

Please be aware that this is not an employment position. The individual will receive a contracted amount for their services at the conclusion of the successful term.
